

Chris Hume - Bass, Vocals

A well-seasoned pro with 20+ years of touring work across Canada under his belt, with bands like Deepest Purple, Cuts Like A Knife, and Shovelhead Jones, Chris has performed literally thousands of shows. Chris grew up with the music of Pink Floyd, and FF is the realization of a long held desire to perform this classic material. Bringing an intimate knowledge of Roger Waters's bass lines to the band, Chris also possesses the warm, earthy voice that distinguishes David Gilmour's vocal parts in the show. Chris is an energetic performer, and anyone can see that he loves what he does. When not touring, our "1st baseman" likes to spend time with his young family, and is often found dining on international cuisine, attending JFK Assassination Symposiums, or buying rare musical instruments.
