

Chloe Watkinson - Vocals, Percussion

Chloe Watkinson has been singing her whole life, and has been performing since she was 7 years old. In addition to being a deep appreciator of PF's music, she's also a highly trained vocalist, with tremendous range. Always on the go, Chloe loves what she does, and anyone can hear her passion. She has studied with teachers such as Micah Barnes (of the nylons) and Louise Lambert, and graduated from Rosedale Heights School of the Arts. Her feature turns in the show include her amazing Great Gig In the Sky, Eclipse, and Mother. Raised in a professional musical family, she has an exceptional gift, as every Floyd Factor audience can attest. This beautiful young lady's voice brings the house down every night, without fail.
